PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

SECRETARIAT OF THE VICE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA — Jan 2026 - Jun 2026

Legal Analyst Intern | Assistant Deputy for Politics, Security, Law and Human Rights

- Converted incoming complaints, official correspondence, and case materials into structured legal analyses by rebuilding fact chronologies, identifying core legal issues, and researching applicable regulations.
- Prepared 3-4 legal analyses and memorandums per month by connecting case facts with relevant legal provisions and considerations to support internal review and supervisor evaluation.
- Conducted legal research and reviewed relevant regulations concerning public governance, administrative law, and human rights issues to support case analysis.
- Verified the authenticity, accuracy, and consistency of supporting documents during case analysis, including cross-checking the existence, registration status, and relevant licensing information of referenced institutions and entities against available sources.
- Assisted the Lapor Mas Wapres public complaint service in a two-person frontline team, handling 2–4 complainants weekly during rotating assignments by clarifying reported issues, checking attachments, recording complainant information, and entering submissions into the official system.
- Participated in complainant follow-up discussions and internal case reviews to identify and clarify information gaps and align case facts, legal questions, and appropriate institutional next steps.
- Received an internship evaluation score of 94/100 (Very Good), including 96/100 for punctuality, responsibility, work results, and professional ethics.

DPRD DAERAH ISTIMEWA YOGYAKARTA — Nov 2025

Legal & Legislative Research Participant (KKL Program)
